The Sweet Briar Alumnae Association is organized for the purpose of keeping alive among the graduates and former students of Sweet Briar a feeling that they still have a part in the development and life of their college.

On campus there is an Alumnae Office which was moved this year to the Cabin, and it has become one of the most attractive corners at Sweet Briar. It is delightful to spend a rainy afternoon, or a winter evening in this cheerful room with its wide open fireplace and both students and alumnae enjoy its hospitality.

The Sweet Briar Student Government Association grew out of an earnest desire on the part of the students to assume individual and community responsibility for their own conduct in matters not strictly academic. Dignity and honor pertain to student government, and it is a means whereby the highest ideal of government depends upon the high standard of honor, personal and collective, of the entire student body, and the co-operation of every member, who should feel it her individual responsibility to raise the standard and ennoble the life of the community in which she takes her place.

The Y. W. C. A. at Sweet Briar is an organization formed for the purpose of social service. On the campus it takes charge of classes, chapel, and entertainment for the waitresses, holds chapel every Wednesday evening for the student body, and manages a lending library of modern fiction. Under its auspices excellent speakers are invited to the college, and interesting group discussions follow. At the beginning of the year the Y. W. C. A. welcomes the new girls and helps them to adjust themselves to college life. Its chief interest off the campus is a small church and school for the "half-breeds," known as the Mission, where, due to the drought and fire this year, much aid has been needed and given.

The Interclass Council was organized two years ago to take the place of the former Varsity Council. Its purpose is to obtain and retain a certain amount of harmony between Freshmen and other students, to make "hazing" a thing of the past and to acquaint the Freshmen with the traditions of Sweet Briar. It is still in an early stage of development, but it is hoped that by raising the standards each year, Interclass Council will be recognized as a very worthy organization.

The club, through gifts and purchase, has acquired a small but growing collection of Greek and Roman coins and other classical antiques, which it is presenting to the college. Some of the interesting programs have consisted of a study of these antiques, archaeological subjects, and various phases of classical learning.

The Ensemble

One of the outstanding interests among the students of Sweet Briar is that shown in music, and the Sweet Briar Ensemble is a living expression of that interest. Begun in the fall of 1926, by a small group of enthusiasts, it is today a live and active organization. Once each week its members meet and experience together some of the world's finest music literature. And twice a year they present the fruits of that experience in a concert, which is given not so much as a proof of their achievement but rather as an invitation to the whole college community to share and enjoy with them their musical experience.

Organized early in the college's history from a nucleus of a small group of girls who went through the dormitories singing Christmas carols the night before Christmas vacation, the Glee Club has grown in proportion to the college itself. The carol-singing group has become a club of fifty members whose aim is it to enjoy as well as to perform for the pleasure of the college community some of the best music, and whose policy it is to present achievements in concerts both formal and informal at various times during the college year. Because the Glee Club was formed simply and solely through the love of singing of its originators, the Club has always been especially for those who love to sing and who want to learn to love it. And it still sings Christmas carols!

The International Relations Club of Sweet Briar College was organized in 1921 under the leadership of Dr. McDougall. Since then the club has grown both in scope and influence. The aim of the present organization is to stimulate and encourage the habit of serious and intelligent thought along international lines in the hope that it may become a life habit. The work is, in the main, in the hands of the student members, but the faculty have taken a decided interest in the welfare of the club, realizing the need there is for such an organization. An attempt has been made to keep it serious, nonpartisan, and free from all propaganda. It is under the supervision of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

The Sweet Briar News was organized four years ago and is the newest of the student publications. It aims to furnish the campus with all news of local interest, and also to give the alumnae the news of their own classmates and of their college.

A Board of Control, composed of three faculty advisers, five elected students, and the editor and business manager in ex-officio positions, was organized last year to stand back of the paper's policies, and to assume all responsibility in emergency situations.

Calendar

- SEPTEMBER 18—We are coming, we are coming, a brave little band; in the right cause of education we'll now take our stand.
20—Y. W. Party. "Darling, for pity's sake, go dance with my freshman. She's really AWfully sweet."
28—The First Step Singing. The lusty yipping and yapping of the freshmen. The Tau Phi neophytes weeping blissfully.
- OCTOBER 3—Mary Lou Flournoy gets rash and has an English Club meeting. Dr. Connor as excited as a girl.
5—Interclass Council. The Misses Mackay and Myers make Phoebe look sorrowful.
10—General initiations, of everything from Paint and Patches to the Elk Club.
13—Miss Glass rises in her wrath and says many fine words on our dress, tsk, tsk.
15—The elements break down and give us a rain.
23—Freshman-Sophomore Day. The beauty thereof, "Broken Dishes," with Sara Phillips as impassioned as ever.
24—Founders' Day. Remarkable showing by the junior class. Alice Weymouth's burning brow.
- NOVEMBER 7—Pledges signed for smoking. Lamentable, lamentable.
8—The Faculty Plays. Mr. Laukhuff all of a twitter. "When the theatre was fraught with romance."
9—The Reverend Ernest Stires. Poor dear man. "My dear, he looks just like a heathen god."
15—Beaten by William and Mary in our own mud. "The Duenna" delights our souls that night.
27—Everybody goes away that possibly can. The usual hilarious Thanksgiving banquet.
- DECEMBER 10—Westcott and Flournoy startle the purely fastidious with their bobs.
12—Chief Sunny Skies talks on the Love Life of the Penguins.
14—Carol Service, which we all cherished.
18—Minstrel Show. Last public appearance of these two merry wags, Tillery and Moore.
19—Christmas Holidays. Sally Ainsworth, that there sinister figure, actually gets home safely.
- JANUARY 6—Holidays over. What could be sweeter?
18—Miss Benedict's sermon.
24—Examinations. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our minds to pass this test.
28—The Quarantine. Was there ever anything mouldier? "But that's the way life treats us."
- FEBRUARY 5—Report cards, and the merry quips called forth.
12—The Sweet Briar Blues. Martha von Briesen and staff suffused with pride. The phenomenal success of same.
18—The Face on the Chapel Floor, or, the Election that Never Went Through.
19—Alice Weymouth elected President of Student Government. Divers other worthies obtain offices.
25—Jane Muhlberg sails through tense excitement as May Queen.
26—Dismay Queen to be Westcott, who is a sly elf. Gallant gesture on Heath's part.
28—The last of the diphtheria patients out. Dr. Harley weeps like a little child. Nightingale tries to look modest over the Junior Jitters.
- MARCH 4—Mr. Laukhuff shows how much he loves his little charges in a tea.
5—School picture taken of Miss Glass surrounded by all her kiddies. Mr. Bennett conspicuous by his absence.
If we are clever, we can foresee all manner of events, up to graduation. Here is where we would say something particularly pithy if we could. But we shan't, which is a Good Thing.

It Didn't Take William James to Tell Us!

We saw for ourselves that the primary demand of the college student is Excellence. Of course Mr. James claims that an appreciation of excellence is the great purpose of a Liberal Arts education . . . to know a good thing when you see it . . . but we have seen it as a Result and we rely upon excellence . . . of fashion, of quality and of service . . . to win your confidence and patronage.
